Combining Spanish passion with Balkan sensibility, The Cavatina Duo has become known for powerful and versatile performances, captivating audiences in many festivals and venues across Europe, Asia and the USA.

Winners of the "Young Musicians of the Doelen" competition in Rotterdam (Netherlands) in 1996, the duo has been called "the best flute and guitar duo in the world today" by Sergio Assad. Spanish flutist Eugenia Moliner, acclaimed as "a brilliant young musician" by British Flute Society magazine, teams with Bosnian guitarist (and husband) Denis Azabagic, winner of eleven international guitar competitions. Their program will include "new tango" music by Astor Piazzolla and music of Macedonia by Miroslav Tadic.

Eugenia Moliner and Denis Azabagic will each conduct a master class held at and co-sponsored with the Community Music School of Webster University on Sunday, December 2, 1:00-3:00 pm. Admission is $5, free to Community Music School students and Flute and Guitar Society members.

Financial assistance has been provided by the Whitaker Foundation, the Regional Arts Commission of St. Louis, the Missouri Arts Council, the D'Addario Foundation for the Performing Arts, and the Arts and Education Council of Greater St. Louis. Welcomed by radio station KFUE-FM CLASSIC 99.
