Turkish-born guitarist Cem Duruöz won the First Prize in the Turkish National Guitar Competition at the age of seventeen. Subsequently he participated in the master classes of John Duarte, Oscar Ghiglia and Eliot Fisk in Europe, received his Master's degree at the San Francisco Conservatory, and completed his graduate guitar studies at The Juilliard School with Sharon Isbin. An enthusiastic educator, Cem Duruöz teaches guitar performance at Wesleyan University in Connecticut, and has been giving master classes throughout the world. Mr. Duruöz' international career has taken him to Argentina, Brazil, Peru, Bolivia, Japan, France, Greece, Bosnia, Spain, Serbia, Kosovo, Poland, Mexico, throughout Turkey and the USA. His St. Louis debut program, presented in cooperation with the St. Louis Turkish American Cultural Alliance, will include both Western European music and music from the traditional, classical, and folk traditions of his native Turkey.

Financial assistance has been provided by the Missouri Arts Council, the Regional Arts Commission of St. Louis, the Whitaker Foundation, the D'Addario Foundation for the Performing Arts, and the Arts and Education Council of Greater St. Louis. Welcomed by radio station KFYO-FM Classic 99.
